

...tasted its beauty.

A government panel plans to extend areas required to take precautions in the event of a nuclear accident,

an expansion that would cover

135 municipalities

and nearly 8 million people.